

Nashua NH (12/18/2025)- Throughout the history of the Front Door Agency, the Board of Directors has continually reached new heights to carry out their mission of ending homelessness in Greater Nashua. Masters of their various respective fields, the Board guarantees the Agency's continued success through setting beneficial policies, reviewing and approving their fiscal budget, and pitching new initiatives to improve the lives of those facing crisis in our community. Volunteering invaluable hours of their time, their Board members work as an expert team of problem solvers to make sure that the Front Door Agency's mission, vision, and values are being upheld to their fullest potential.

Recently, the Front Door Agency introduced three new members to its Board of Directors: Sue Beaubien, Rebecca Lammare, and Stephen Lynn. We reached out to get to know them a bit more as they settle into their roles at the Front Door:

Sue Beaubien

About Sue:

After previously serving for ten years as both a Board member and Board President, Sue is excited to officially return to the Board of Directors. With over 40 years of banking experience at Bellwether Community Credit Union and TD Bank, she is well-versed in the finance industry. Currently serving as Vice President of Retail Services at Bellwether, Sue brings a wide range of skills to the Board and remains closely attuned to current banking trends. In addition to her Board service, she is also a dedicated member of the Agency's Gourmet Festival Task Force. A Nashua resident for more than 20 years, Sue is committed to helping create meaningful change in the community she holds so dear.

Rebecca Lammare

About Becca:

An attorney licensed in both Massachusetts and New Hampshire, Becca is highly experienced in the legal practices of the Greater Nashua area. Serving on a Board for the first time, she brings expertise in trust and estates administration, estate planning, and Medicaid assistance, including guidance with applications and appeals. A lifelong resident of the East Coast, Becca grew up in Massachusetts and earned both her undergraduate degree and J.D. at New England institutions – Roger Williams University and Quinnipiac University. She and her husband are raising their three children, along with a dog and a flock of geese, truly embodying one of the Agency's core values: family

Stephen Lynn

About Steve:

Steve decided to dedicate his time to the Board of Directors after being inspired by his wife Becki's longstanding involvement with the Front Door Agency. He moved to Nashua in 1999 for a role at Rivier College, where he led student activities and community service programs. After earning his MBA in 2006, Steve joined Fidelity Investments and, eighteen years later, now leads the firm's Nashua office. In this role, he hopes to contribute his expertise in leadership and financial education to further the Agency's mission. Deeply rooted in the community, Steve and Becki remain active through local schools, youth sports, their church, and organizations such as the YMCA. Raised by his mother, who worked multiple jobs to support him and his sister, Steve carries forward her lessons of compassion and humanity as he works to help families achieve lasting success.

These outstanding individuals are just a few members of the Agency's team that strive to make a difference. The Front Door Agency provides a holistic approach to break the cycle of poverty by assisting individuals and families to stabilize, transform, and become empowered to ultimately achieve sustainable independence.

To the Front Door, a home is not just a home. It's the promise of a brighter future.
